

A man should not walk directly behind a woman.

One should not walk behind a shul during the time of תפילה (as this shows a certain apathy towards תפילה) unless there are other shuls in town (in which case his walking behind the shul could very well be because he needs to get somewhere and he is assumed to have either already davened, or is going to daven later).

A house from which no תורה is heard at night will be destroyed by fire.
