

While normally a pillar that stands in רשות הרבים that is taller than three טפחים is not considered part of רשות הרבים (if it is 4x4 טפחים wide, then it is considered a כרמלית; if it is not that wide, it is considered a מקום פטור), if the pillar is nine טפחים high, and people use it to adjust things they are carrying, then it is considered to be part of רשות הרבים.
