

The boundaries of the city are always considered as if they are a square. While squaring out the תחום of the city, the square must be made north, south, east and west.

The ערי מקלט, like all cities, has a תחום שבת of two thousand אמות. The first thousand was used as an open field, the second thousand was used for fields and vineyards.