

It is אסור to make a house in the form, i.e the measurements, of the בית המקדש. It is also אסור to make exact replicas of the כלים, such as the שלחן or מנורה. However, a מנורה made with six or eight branches is מותר to make, as the מנורה in the בית המקדש had seven branches. The ש"ך writes that it is אסור to use any metal (as any metal was כשר for use in the בית המדש) while constructing a (seven branched) מנורה, though wood may be used (even for a seven branched מנורה).

It is אסור to sculpt a human face, or to make a human face on paper that protrudes. Drawing a human face on flat paper, however, is מותר.

There is a מחלוקת whether dolls needs to be defaced. רב עובדיה writes dolls may even be made, and certainly purchased/owned, as the intent of the הלכה is that people should not come to עבוד עבודה זרה and there is no chance that a person would use a doll as עבודה זרה. רב משה שטרנבך holds dolls made by a Jew should not be purchased.

It is אסור to draw or mold a sun or moon. Partial moons or suns are מותר.

It is אסור to draw מלאכים.
